

Elkin Nurmammadov
Dean of the School of Business, ADA University

Dr. Elkin Nurmammadov is the Dean of the School of Business at ADA University since 2017. Prior to this appointment, he served as Associate Dean of Academic Affairs in the same school and as Associate Vice Rector of Academic Affairs overseeing undergraduate studies. Since joining ADA (then Azerbaijan Diplomatic Academy) as Assistant Professor of Economics in 2009, he has taught a number of courses in the field of Economics at undergraduate and graduate levels, as well as to representatives of diplomatic corps and business community.

He is also a frequent speaker to different audiences and a consultant to international organizations on issues related to Azerbaijan's economy.

He holds a B.A. in Business Administration from Bogazici University (Turkey) and a Ph.D. in Economics from the University of Georgia (USA).